2012 FESTIVAL RULES

- All work must be original and completed within the last two years. Signed and numbered prints of an artist's work are allowed but cannot be more than 50% of the displayed work and must be signed and numbered by the artist. Offset lithographs and giclees permitted with above 50% applied. The 50% does not include photography.
- CD submissions must be representative of the work to be shown at the Festival.
- No booth sharing. Only one artist per booth.
- Collaborating artists are permitted; only their joint work may be shown. Both names must appear on all application materials.
- Artists may apply to exhibit in more than one media category; however, they can only sell work in the media accepted by the jury. Separate jury fees apply for each media.
- Photographers' works must be individually signed by the artist.
- Gallery Booths are not allowed due to space limitations.
- Accepted artists must arrive one hour prior to the Festival's opening and remain on-site throughout the Festival's operating hours.
- All work needs to be 90% handmade by the artist. Commercially manufactured materials such as bought beads as an example will not be allowed.
- No Buy/Sell items allowed!

HOW TO ENTER

The application shall include:

1. The attached entry form found on back.
2. Please submit 4 representative images that have been produced in the last two years. We are only accepting CDs this year. One image must display your booth and three images of your work.
3. TWO checks: One for $25.00 non-refundable Jury Fee and one for $175.00 Booth Fee both payable to THE CARMEL INTERNATIONAL ARTS FESTIVAL
4. We will not be returning CDs this year unless you include postage. Please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope (SASE) for notification of status. Those juried in will receive their CD at the show.
5. Sign the Hold Harmless and Publicity Agreement found on the application.
6. 2011 Award Winners are exempt from the jury process and need not send the images. (An exception - if you changed mediums you will have to send images and be juried in again.)
